Several groups and people spokes about this occurrence. Historians registered it in their books. Also it is recorded and implicated in some of the Households narrations (Hadith(s) of Ahl-al-Bait). Likewise many poets saved and registered this occurrence as a poem that among them there are Christian Poets. In this paper, we will explain these subjects by analyzing two odes of two Christian poets (Bules Salaama and Abdolmasih Antaki). These two poets: a) mentioned history and historical truth and realities more than fancies; b) described details of Ghadir Occurrence such as, the warmth description, crowdedness, obvious stress of the Holy Prophet (pbuh), etc; c) pay attention to some of the Qur'anic verses, Hadith(s) and historical occurrences; d) applied poetic affection in their poems truly and succeeded in expressing their feelings.
