خلاصه مقاله:

The urban spaces are crucial and can be considered as the main parts of a city in its social economical development specially when they are valuable and historical. These valuable places are like living things which are alive and show the identity of a nation or a city. If these are not paid attention surley they will cause many problems for the country and its people. This study which is quite organized with its own special objectives is to deal with this main subject matter so that the cultural historical economical importance of the ancient literature is from the different books of the libraries and the other important available documents. The present study has its own unity, organization and comprehensiveness in order to revive the valuable historical contexts in urban spaces which is in line with the present needs of the society
