

عنوان مقاله:

Post-Islam Iranism Jurisdiction at Qajar Era

محل انتشار:

فصلنامه فقه و حقوق نوین، دوره 3، شماره 12 (سال: 1401)

تعداد صفحات اصل مقاله: 26

نویسنده:

خلاصه مقاله:

Iranism Jurisdiction and its beginning throughout the entire existence of Iran is one of the issues that actually stay in debate. One reason adding to this is that there are a few ambiguities in the set of experiences. In the mean time, the job of Maneckji Limji Hataria is among the variables that are deserving of additional reflection. In ۱۸۵۴ Maneckji Limji Hataria has entered Iran as the main agent of Parsis of India. He communicated with scholars and journalists of Naasari period of Iran culture during his drawn out inhabitancy in Iran. This investigation tries to respond to this scrutinize that "what is the situation of Iranism Jurisdiction and Iranian disposition in the his collaborations with masterminds of Naasari period?". For this reason, alluding to verifiable sources, archives, correspondence and giving confirmations, the creators show that Iranism Jurisdiction is the focal and crucial issue in Maneckji Limji Hataria connections with intelligent people of Naasari time is and these communications can be considered as an auxiliary factor influencing the Iranism Jurisdiction mentalities of Naasari time.

کلمات کلیدی:

Post-Islam, Iranism Jurisdiction, Elites, Maneckji Limji Hataria, Qjar Era

لینک ثابت مقاله در پایگاه سیویلیکا:

<https://civilica.com/doc/1610322>

