

عنوان مقاله:

"Privatization Paradox : Insights from Public Choice Theory"

محل انتشار:

چهارمین کنفرانس بین المللی تحقیقات پیشرفته در مدیریت و علوم انسانی (سال: 1403)

تعداد صفحات اصل مقاله: 14

نویسندگان:

(Mersedeh Mojaver Zargar - Master Student at University of Tehran(International Campus kish

Hassan Badini - Associate Professor at faculty of law and political sciences University of Tehran

خلاصه مقاله:

The purpose of this research is to evaluate the process of privatization through the lens of public choice theory. This analytical study examines current sources from libraries and institutions, as well as notes from interviews with economists, lawyers, psychologists, and other scholars. Public choice theory posits that politicians, being ordinary people, act based on self-interest and rent-seeking behaviors. An example of rent-seeking is the Solyndra case, where legislation favored a few at the expense of many. The results indicate that rent-seeking, lack of collective decision-making, public resistance, regulatory non-compliance, and other factors contribute to the failure of privatization initiatives. This study explores the fundamental concepts, challenges, and shortcomings of privatization from the public choice perspective and discusses the conditions and tools necessary for successful privatization according to this theory

کلمات کلیدی:

Privatization, Public choice theory, Economic theory, rent-seeking

لینک ثابت مقاله در پایگاه سیویلیکا:

<https://civilica.com/doc/2045198>

