خلاصه مقاله:

The future is not a result of choices among alternative paths offered by the present, The future is not a result of choices among alternative paths offered by the present, but a place that is created—created first in the mind and will, created next in activity. The future is not some place we are going to, but one we are creating. The paths are not to be found, but made, and the activity of making them, changes both the maker and the destination. The dominance of the formation based on written sources and descriptive study of modernism in architecture is required to take place. Accordingly, a description of the conceptual foundations and dominance of the formation of knowledge-based features In the workplace and during training space to analysis and description challenges and feasibility of future environmental In practice the profession of architecture to come
