

عنوان مقاله:

The tasks of social workers working with children of divorce: A Review

محل انتشار:

فصلنامه مدیریت و مطالعات حسابداری، دوره 1، شماره 1 (سال: 1392)

تعداد صفحات اصل مقاله: 6

نویسندگان:

Hossein Zare - Assistant Professor , Department of Educational Administrator, Esfahan Farhangian University, Iran

Saeed Rajaeepur - PhD. Associated professor of Educational Administration, Faculty of Education, University of Esfahan, Iran

خلاصه مقاله:

Divorce is one of the phenomena of interest to all human societies throughout history has been the trauma of divorce; the divorce has been a significant range of issues. Divorce is somewhat compensated for the physical problems but mental problems, not only individuals but communities and families will have suffered from a psychological perspective, the major mood disorders, personality disorders, post-traumatic stress disorder and anxiety disorders is important consequences of violence and divorce That will continue for years after the divorce and on the individual, social relations, economic and cultural conditions he will have great impact Or will they feel the bitter taste of events with intense fear, helplessness and horror is, patients with traumatic events such constant nightmares, memories or .refresh their memories to recall as much as possible and also try to prevent we are repeating the experience

کلمات کلیدی:

Social workers, Divorce, mental disorders, stress marriage, remarriage, mental divorce

لینک ثابت مقاله در پایگاه سیویلیکا:

<https://civilica.com/doc/406278>

