خلاصه مقاله:

Poetry and drama have been accompanied together since the beginning of the history of literature, since people usually understand poetry and drama much more tangible than other forms of literature. The Iranian contemporary poet Nima Yooshij's poems were not also untouched by the same trend, because the situation in which Nima was living made him compose some dramatic poems as well. Therefore, the aim of this research is to investigate the dramatic elements in selected poems of Nima.
